

FOL Meeting Notes Nov. 15, 2016

Attendees: Dorinda Morris, Lori Martens Mary Lee Stecklein, Carol Church
(Ernestine Titus is recovering from knee replacement surgery)

Minutes of August 16 meeting were read and approved and seconded.

Treasurer's Report: Lori Martens submitted and it was approved and seconded.

Old Business: It was noted that Carla Schmidt had donated and planted pansies in the planters outside the library and a thank you will be sent.

A few items that had funds allocated were discussed as Hank the Cowdog, and it was suggested checking to see if it was still on the agenda as well as audio books and ear buds, flash drives etc. The book shelves & other work is still ongoing.

New Business: It was suggested by Lori Martens that FOL donate funds for two angels from the Angel Tree Project. It was discussed, moved and seconded that we donate $110 for two angels.

A tentative date was set for the next Book and Bake sale - May 6, 2017

The next book club will meet at noon Dec. 14 to discuss The Christmas Sweater. The ladies have been bringing salads to share for lunch.

The next FOL meeting will be January 17, 2017.

(Submitted by Carol Church, secretary)